INTRODUCTION

The Eswatini General Certificate of Secondary Education (EGCSE) syllabuses are designed as two-year courses for examination in Form 5. The English Language syllabus assumes that learners have been through a Junior Secondary programme of language learning. Learners of English may fall into one of the following categories – those who use the English Language frequently in their social environment, and those who only have contact with the English Language at school.

The content of this syllabus is arranged under various headings, but it should be read overall as encouraging a communicative and appropriately integrated approach to language learning and teaching. It also recognises that language learning is a complex process, usually involving the interplay of listening, speaking, reading and writing underpinned by knowledge of the structure of the language. Learners' needs and the strategies available to teachers may vary greatly from area to area and within any class; but in all cases the English Language syllabus must encourage awareness of the usefulness of the language, making learners appreciate its importance for their personal, social and intellectual development.

All EGCSE syllabuses follow a general pattern. The main sections are:

Assessment

Curriculum Content

English Language falls into the English Language Compulsory Subjects Group.

The rationale to teach English Language is as follows:

- English is one of the official languages in the country, the other being the language of the Swati people, SiSwati.
- English is an international language, which allows learners to compete and/or participate in the global market economically, commercially, technologically, politically, culturally and socially. It is also used as the main language for entertainment and sport in the world.
- English is the medium of instruction in schools in Eswatini at Senior Secondary level and most texts in Eswatini are written in English. Competence in English undoubtedly enables learners to perform better in all other subjects.
- It provides the English language skills necessary for employment, the world of work and life in general.
- It also provides a language foundation for continuing education and tertiary education within Eswatini, SADC and internationally.

AIMS

The aims of the syllabus are the same for all learners. These aims are set out below and describe the educational purposes of a course in English Language for the EGCSE Examination. They are not listed in order of priority.

The aims are to enable learners to:

1. develop an awareness of the usefulness of the English Language as a medium of national and international communication;
2. promote the value of effective language command and use for personal development;
3. develop an awareness of the nature of language and language-learning skills;
4. form a sound base for the effective uses of English for the purposes of further study and employment.

While the approach aims at a high level of proficiency in the use of Standard English, the teaching methodology acknowledges that English is not the first language of the majority of the learners in Eswatini. The four skills of language learning should be an integral part of all aspects of English teaching. That is: Listening; Speaking; Reading; and Writing. Language activities must meet the needs of learners and promote their language development effectively. In focusing on the skills that promote language competence, the teacher must not lose sight of the need for the learner's enjoyment of language activities: language is essentially creative and expressive and can only grow from this point.

While it must be stressed that communicative competence should be the main aim, a sound understanding of how language works (usage) will help learners to appreciate the principles underlying their own speech, reading, listening and writing, and to cope with the demands of language across the curriculum and outside the classroom.

For this reason, the material detailed under the Curriculum Content in this syllabus will be taught communicatively, with the emphasis being on achieving communicative rather than purely linguistic competence. This is because learners need to be able to communicate in English in the real world, rather than to analyse it for its own sake.

The main features of the course of study in EGCSE English Language can be summarised as follows:

- The subject is skills based, focusing on the development of the basic language skills of Listening, Speaking, Reading and Writing with the emphasis on developing the communicative competence of learners in real life situations.
- These skills are taught in an integrated way to bring about the development of positive attitudes, values and extension of knowledge.
- Grammar is taught as an integrated component of the subject and not in isolation.
- The subject caters for a wide range of ability, providing equal opportunity for all, so that learners are able to realise and fulfil their potential.
- The content is drawn from other subjects and a variety of sources in order to facilitate learning and provide meaningful and creative experiences in all aspects of language.
- Language development should be supported by an extensive reading programme that demands the use of the library as a major resource Centre.

ASSESSMENT OBJECTIVES

The syllabus assesses the receptive skills of Reading and Listening, and the productive skills of Writing and Speaking. The Assessment Objectives have been grouped under skill headings, but it is recognised that these are interrelated.

A description of each of the Assessment Objectives in English Language follows.

Learners are assessed on their ability to:

Reading

- R1 comprehend and respond to texts presented in a variety of forms.
- R2 select, organise and analyse material relevant to specific purposes.
- R3 recognise, understand main ideas and distinguish between facts, opinions and ideas using appropriate support from the text.
- R4 understand what is implied but not actually written, e.g. relationships, gist, writer's purpose/intention, writer's feelings, situation or place.

Writing

- W1 communicate clearly, accurately and appropriately.
- W2 order and present facts, ideas and opinions.
- W3 understand and use a range of appropriate vocabulary.
- W4 use language and register appropriate to audience and context.
- W5 employ and control a variety of accurate grammatical structures.
- W6 observe conventions of paragraphing, punctuation and spelling.

Listening

- L1 understand and respond to information presented in a variety of forms.
- L2 select and organise material relevant to specific purposes.
- L3 recognise, understand and distinguish between facts, ideas and opinions.
- L4 infer information from texts.

Speaking

- S1 articulate experience and express what is thought, felt and imagined.
- S2 present facts, ideas and opinions employing a variety of appropriate grammatical structure.
- S3 demonstrate knowledge of a range of appropriate grammatical structure.
- S4 initiate and influence the direction of a conversation.
- S5 employ suitable pronunciation and stress patterns.

ASSESSMENT

Scheme of Assessment

All papers are compulsory. Candidates must enter for Papers 1 (Reading and Writing), 2 (Continuous Writing), 3 (Listening) and 4 (Speaking) and are eligible for the award of Grades A* to G.

A description of each paper follows.

Paper 1 Reading and Writing (2 hours) consisting of 50 marks.

For all parts of this component, candidates write their answers in the spaces provided on the question paper.

Dictionaries should not be used.

Candidates write all their answers in spaces provided on the question paper.

The paper is divided into Five Compulsory Exercises. The Exercises have different total mark allocations, and some are broken down into a series of sub-questions.

Exercise 1 Reading 1 (14 marks) Assessment Objectives R1, R2, R3 and R4

A reading exercise of 550 – 650 words in which candidates will be required to answer a series of questions testing more detailed comprehension, based on a text printed in the question paper. The text will take the form of a report/newspaper/magazine article, which may incorporate a graphical element.

Exercise 2 Note-making (8 marks) Assessment Objectives R1, R2, R3, W1 and W2

A note-making task of 500 – 600 words in which candidates will be required to make brief notes (under supplied heading or headings) relating to a text printed in the question paper.

Exercise 3 Reading 2 (8 marks) Assessment Objectives R1, R2, R3 and R4

A reading exercise of 450 – 550 words in which candidates will be required to answer a series of questions testing more detailed reading comprehension requiring answers in alphabet, based on a text in which different speakers give their views on a particular subject, printed in the question paper.

Exercise 4 Reading 3 (10 marks) Assessment Objectives R1, R2, R3 and R4

A reading comprehension task of 500 – 600 words in which candidates will be required to respond to a series of sub-questions. These include short answers testing understanding of both explicit and implicit meanings which may include imagery, writer's attitudes, effects of language use etc.

Exercise 5 Summary (10 marks – 6 for Reading Objectives and 4 for Writing Objectives) Assessment Objectives R1, R2, R3, R4, W1, W2, W3, W4, W5 and W6

A summary writing task of 550 – 650 words in which candidates will be required to write a summary of about 100 words of continuous prose, about an aspect or aspects of the passage.

This paper will be weighted at 35% of the final total available marks.

Paper 2 Continuous Writing (2 hours) consisting of 50 marks.

For all parts of this component, candidates write their answers in the spaces provided on the question paper.

Dictionaries should not be used.

The paper is divided into Three Compulsory Exercises. The tasks for these exercises will be distinguished by requiring different purposes/formats/audiences/registers.

Exercise 1 Letter writing: Informal Writing (14 marks) Assessment Objectives W1, W2, W3, W4, W5 and W6

Candidates will be required to write approximately one page of continuous prose, in response to a short graphic stimulus and/or short prompts printed on the paper. A purpose, format and audience for the writing will be specified.

Candidates will receive up to 7 marks for content and up to 7 marks for style and accuracy in language.

Exercise 2 Formal writing (14 marks) Assessment Objectives W1, W2, W3, W4, W5 and W6

Candidates will be required to write approximately one page of an argumentative/persuasive piece in continuous prose, in response to a short graphic stimulus and/or short prompts printed on the paper. A purpose, format and audience for the writing will be specified.

Candidates will receive up to 7 marks for content and up to 7 marks for style and accuracy in language.

Exercise 3 Extended writing (22 marks) Assessment Objectives W1, W2, W3, W4, W5 and W6

Candidates will be required to write about 2 to 2½ pages of continuous prose. They will be required to write on one topic from a choice of three titles. Candidates will be required to write either an expository/factual, discursive, descriptive or narrative piece which may have a visual element as a stimulus.

Candidates will receive up to 11 marks for content and up to 11 marks for style and accuracy in language.

This paper will be weighted at 35% of the final total available marks.

Paper 3 Listening (approximately 45 minutes) consisting of 30 marks.

For all parts of this component, candidates write their answers in the spaces provided on the question paper. Each question tests listening comprehension of recorded texts (e.g. dialogue, announcements, conversations, talks, lectures on a compact disc (CD) played in the examination room. Each text is heard twice on the CD. The CD is controlled by the invigilator of the examination, not the candidate(s) (see Appendix: Notes on the Administration of the Listening Test).

Dictionaries should not be used.

Candidates write all their answers in spaces provided in the question paper and should attempt all questions.

The paper is divided into Five Compulsory Exercises.

Exercise 1

Consists of Questions 1 - 5 (5 marks) Assessment Objectives L1 and L2.

Five scenarios based on a series of short spoken texts (e.g. announcement, answer-phone message, brief dialogue, extracts of news bulletin), requiring short answers.

Exercise 2 (5 marks) Assessment objectives L1, L2 and L3

Testing listening for understanding based on longer spoken texts (e.g., conversation, interview, monologue, talk) requiring completion of gaps on forms/charts printed in the question paper.

NB Questions in this exercise will have leads and examples.

Exercise 3 (7 marks) Assessment objectives L1, L2 and L3

Testing listening for understanding based on longer spoken texts (e.g., conversation, interview, monologue, talk) requiring completion of gaps on forms/charts printed in the question paper.

NB Questions in this exercise will have leads only but no examples.

Exercise 4 (6 marks) Assessment Objectives L1, L2, L3 and L4

Testing listening for understanding based on longer spoken texts (e.g. conversation, interview, monologue, talk). The exercise will consist of questions requiring short or sentence-length answers.

Exercise 5 (7 marks) Assessment Objectives L1, L2, L3 and L4

Testing listening for understanding based on longer spoken texts (e.g., conversation, interview, monologue, talk). The exercise will consist of questions requiring short or sentence-length answers.

This paper will be weighted at 15% of the final total available marks.

Paper 4 Speaking (approximately 10-15 minutes) consisting of 30 marks.

Assessment Objectives S1, S2, S3, S4 and S5.

Oral exams are conducted during a period before the main examination session. Materials for the exam are dispatched to Centres before this period, and once these have been opened, the exams must be conducted as soon as possible. After the exams, the Centre must send back to ECESWA the recorded CDs for moderation before the advertised deadline.

At least five Oral Assessment Cards will be issued, with an accompanying set of Teacher's Notes. Each card will introduce a topic for discussion between the Teacher/Examiner and the candidate, together with suggestions for the development of the conversation.

The teacher/examiner selects ONE oral card for each candidate from the range provided.

The total duration of the oral exam should be approximately 10-15 minutes, made up of:

- Non-assessed 'warm-up' conversation (approximately 2-3 minutes)
- Time for the candidate to read the Oral Assessment Card and to prepare a response (no written notes are permitted) (approximately 2-3 minutes)
- Assessed conversation (approximately 6-9 minutes)

Internal assessment will be conducted by a Teacher/Examiner at the Centre using the Oral Assessment Criteria grid (see Appendix: Notes on Conducting the Oral Tests and Appendix: Oral Assessment Criteria Grid). It will then be approved by the Examinations Council of Eswatini.

The Teacher / Examiner will usually be the subject teacher or someone from the Centre's English Language Department. It could also be someone from outside the Centre if there is a need.

The Teacher/Examiner will conduct and internally assess the exams, using the Oral Assessment Criteria Grid and will submit recorded conversations of candidates' performances for external moderation by ECESWA.

Centres will receive a brief report on the outcome of moderation.

This paper will be weighted at 15% of the final total available marks.

The Teacher/Examiner's notes accompanying the oral test cards contain full instructions on the administration of the oral tests.

GRADE DESCRIPTIONS

The scheme of assessment is intended to encourage positive achievement by all candidates. Grade descriptions are provided to give a general indication of the standards of achievement likely to have been shown by candidates awarded particular grades. The grade awarded will depend on the extent to which the candidate has met the assessment objectives overall and may conceal weakness in one aspect of the examination that is balanced by above-average performance on some other.

Criteria for the standard of achievement likely to have been shown by candidates awarded Grades A, C and F are shown below.

A Grade A candidate has demonstrated expertise in:

- understanding and communicating arguments, ideas and information both at a straightforward and a more complex level;
- structuring work overall so that the reader can follow the argument from the beginning to the end;
- selecting material from texts and developing it in relationship to the question, sufficient to show some independence of thought;
- describing and reflecting upon experience and expressing effectively what is felt and imagined;
- recognising and explaining underlying meaning and the writer's attitude to the subject matter;
- varying style straightforwardly in different types of writing and giving evidence of a satisfactory range of language;
- spelling and punctuating accurately, with few, if any, mistakes;
- using well-constructed paragraphs and sentences (of average complexity) and obeying standard grammatical conventions;
- speaking clearly and confidently in response to (the directions of conversation) other speakers and occasionally taking the initiative.

A Grade C candidate has demonstrated competence in:

- understanding and communicating arguments, ideas and information at a straightforward level;
- ensuring that all work has a clear beginning, middle and ending, and that ideas generally follow on from one another;
- selecting material from texts in answer to questions and providing straightforward explanations and developments to show relevance;
- describing and reflecting upon experience and expressing effectively what is felt and imagined;
- recognising the more obvious implicit meanings and attitudes;
- writing and punctuating accurately with comparatively infrequent mistakes, so that communication is not impaired;
- using adequate paragraphing and some variety of sentence construction;
- speaking clearly with some confidence, mostly in response to the directions of other speakers, showing a readiness to listen to others and to respond appropriately.

A Grade F candidate has demonstrated competence in:

- understanding and communicating arguments, ideas and information at a basic level;
- ensuring that all work has a basic sequence;
- selecting material from texts in answer to questions and providing basic explanations;
- describing experience and expressing what is felt and imagined;
- recognising the most obvious implicit meanings and attitudes;
- writing at least in single sentences with the possibility of varying it according to different types of writing and using a range of language adequate to most of the tasks set;
- spelling and punctuating so that weaknesses do not seriously impair communication;
- using paragraphing and variety of sentence construction, with some regard to everyday grammatical conventions;
- speaking with some confidence, but usually in response to the directions of other speakers, and showing a readiness to listen to others and to respond.

NOTES ON THE ADMINISTRATION OF THE LISTENING TEST

Centres will be supplied with one Compact Disk (CD) for every 30 candidates plus one spare, and will be able to keep these after the examination. Centres are strongly advised to hold the listening test in a room that is suitable for up to thirty candidates at a time. If a Centre has equipment that is especially powerful, more candidates may be accommodated without special permission, but no applications for special consideration will be accepted on the grounds of inaudibility. Language laboratories may be used, but particular care must be taken to ensure adequate supervision.

Checking Listening CDs

- Listening CDs must be spot-checked for recording and sound quality one working day before the exam, in the presence of the invigilator. This check must not affect the security of the examination.
- In order to check the acoustics (i.e., the loudspeakers and sound quality), one of the CDs must be spot-checked at the appropriate volume in the examination room on the day of the examination and no later than 30 minutes before the examination is due to take place. This check must not affect the security of the examination.
- On neither of the above occasions may the CDs be listened to in full nor may the CDs be removed from the Centre for checking.

Conduct of the Listening Test

Ideally, an English Teacher should be present to deal with any technical difficulties that may arise. If this person has to be the Teacher who prepared the candidates for the subject under examination, they must not be the sole Invigilator.

Once started, the CDs must not be stopped except in the case of a serious emergency. Noise from outside the examination room does not constitute a serious emergency and the CD must not be stopped in these circumstances. Candidates should be warned of this before the test begins.

In the event of the CD being stopped in a serious emergency, it should be restarted, once the emergency has been dealt with, at exactly the same place. A statement from the Invigilator, indicating at which point in the recording the interruption took place, the nature of the incident and the length of the interruption, should be submitted to the Examinations Council of Eswatini, along with an application for special consideration. If there is good reason to doubt whether certain items have been heard by all candidates, these items should be identified in the report and the reason for doubt given.

Centres should contact the Examinations Council of Eswatini if equipment fails during the examination in order to make alternative arrangements for the conduct of the listening test.

NOTES ON CONDUCTING THE ORAL TESTS

1. The oral tests take place in the period before the main examination session as notified on the timetable. Each Centre decides on a convenient period within these dates for its oral tests. It is recommended that the tests are conducted within one week to allow sufficient time for a single Examiner to conduct all of the tests. (See point 4. below).
2. Centres must ensure well in advance of the tests that a suitably quiet room is available and that equipment is in good order.
3. Centres must adhere to dates for completion of the oral tests and for the receipt of mark sheets and recordings to allow sufficient time for external moderation. It is vital that material does not arrive late.
4. For Centres with 30 or fewer candidates, there should normally be just one Examiner. This is normally a Teacher within the English Language department, but could be someone local from outside the Centre. A group of neighboring Centres might choose the same Teacher to conduct all their tests; in such a case each Centre is still responsible for submitting properly completed forms and recorded CDs.

Centres with more than 30 candidates may use more than one Examiner (applying the ratio of an additional Examiner for each 30 candidates). If using more than one Examiner, internal moderation must be carried out by the Centre so that a common standard is applied to all candidates.

5. Centres entering candidates for the examination will receive a set of Oral Assessment Cards, notes about administration and forms for entering marks. Examiners responsible for conducting the oral tests should familiarise themselves with these materials before the tests are held. The Oral Assessment Cards must remain confidential and must be kept in a secure place by the Centre until the end of the examination period.
6. Each Centre must send the following to the Examinations Council of Eswatini (recorded conversations) tape-recording of all candidates on CD(s); completed mark sheet forms; and completed Oral Examination Summary Form(s). Please be careful to adhere to instructions given on the forms about their completion and return.

(a) Recorded CDs

Each Centre must provide recordings of all candidates on CD. Centres must not sample the recording. The sampling will be done by ECESWA during moderation

The recorded CD(s) along with the completed Oral Examination Summary Form should be returned as specified as soon as the oral tests have been completed at the Centre.

CDs must be clearly labelled with details of the candidates whose interviews have been recorded. For instructions on recording the oral test session see Recording the Session below.

(b) Oral Examination Summary Form

This is a document on which marks for each candidate are to be entered in detail. Instructions for its completion will be found on the reverse of the form.

Please be careful to check all mark additions. The Oral Examination Summary Form must show the breakdown of marks for all the candidates

7. The recorded CD(s), along with the Oral Summary Form should be returned as specified as soon as the oral tests have been completed at the Centre. Please do not wait until the end of the timetable period before sending them.
8. The oral tests should proceed along the following lines:
(A) Start the recording. Give the candidate's number. Welcome the candidate and explain briefly what is going to happen in the course of the test.
(B) Warm-up section. Conduct a general conversation by asking the candidate a few questions about herself/himself, the school, etc., to give the candidate time to get used to the examination situation.

The purpose of this section of the test is to put candidates at their ease. As a guide, about 2-3 minutes should be spent on this section.

(C) Hand the Oral Assessment Card to the candidate. This must take place AFTER the warm-up has taken place. Any necessary explanation should be given at this point, followed by a short preparation period (approximately 2-3 minutes), when the candidate is at liberty to ask questions. The candidate may not make notes during this period. The recorder should be paused by the Examiner while the candidate considers the Oral Assessment Card. The Examiner should indicate this by saying, 'The recording will now be paused' so that the External Moderator knows that the candidate is being given time to study the card.

(D) Main part of the test. Conversation based on the Oral Assessment Card. Either the Examiner or the candidate may start the conversation. This section of the test should last approximately 6-9 minutes.

The total duration of the oral test, from the beginning of (B) to the end of (D), should be approximately 10-15 minutes.

Note that only the main part of the test (D) is to be assessed.

The oral test must be conducted in English throughout.

9. Examination conditions must prevail in the area where the oral tests take place. Adequate supervision must be provided to ensure that the candidates leaving the room for the oral tests do not communicate with those waiting to enter.
10. No other person should be present during the oral test, with the exception of a representative of the Examinations Council of Eswatini.
11. Candidates are not allowed to bring any notes into the examination room, nor are they allowed to consult dictionaries.
12. Candidates will be examined singly.
13. A range of Oral Assessment Cards is provided, and the Examiner (not the candidate) chooses the card to be used for each candidate. As wide a variety as possible of the cards should be used at the Centre. In order that candidates are given every chance to do themselves justice, the Oral Assessment Card should be selected with care. The warm-up may give the Examiner an indication of the best card to select. Remember that the test is one of spoken language not subject knowledge: if it becomes apparent that the candidate finds the topic difficult or inappropriate it is perfectly permissible to move into more productive areas. There is no need to stick rigidly to the Examiner prompts in such cases.
14. The Examiner should be positioned so that s/he is facing the candidate, with a table or desk in between. Candidates should not be able to see the notes made on Oral Examination Summary Forms or similar paperwork.

RECORDING THE SESSION

Centres must ensure that their recording equipment is in good working order. CD recorders must be used. The recorder and the CDs should be tested on site, sometime before the actual oral tests, ideally with one of the candidates. The warm-up section of the test also provides an opportunity to check audibility. Where possible, it is advisable to use a recorder with external microphones so that the separate microphones can be used to candidate and Examiner. If only one microphone is used it should be placed facing the candidate.

It is important to check audibility levels before recording begins; adjustments to the volume control during an examination should normally be avoided. Care should be taken to avoid extraneous noise and long gaps. Checks should be made throughout the oral testing session to ensure that voices on CDs are clearly audible.

With the exception of a permitted pause on the CD between the warm-up and the main part of the test, once the oral test has begun the CD should run without interruption.

Each recording should begin with a clear statement by the Examiner as follows:

'Centre Number: (e.g.,) SZ123
Centre Name: (e.g.,) Abcxyz High School
Examination: 6873 EGCSE English
Examiner Name: (e.g.,) Khontaphi Dladla
Date: (e.g.,) 1 October 2015'

Each candidate recorded on the (CD) sample should be clearly indicated on the recording by the Examiner as follows:

'Candidate Number (e.g.,) 00254
Candidate Name (e.g.,) FakudzeYethu'

At the end of the (conversation) sample the Examiner should state clearly 'End of (conversation) Sample.'
Before the CD is dispatched, spot checks must be made to ensure that every candidate is clearly audible.
The contents of each CD must be clearly labelled.

Marking: general principles

1. You are encouraged to use the full range of marks, bearing in mind it is not necessary for a candidate to give a faultless performance for maximum marks to be awarded within any single category.
2. The general approach is a positive one
3. Within any band, marks should be awarded on a 'best-fit' basis. Thus, compensation between higher and lower achievement for different aspects is acceptable.
4. Above all else, be consistent in your marking. If you are unsure of the mark award, err on the side of generosity. ECOS external moderation process allows for adjustments to be made to consistently harsh or generous marking.

ORAL ASSESSMENT CRITERIA GRID

Give a mark out of 10 for each category (structure, vocabulary, development and fluency), and then add these marks to give an overall total out of 30.

Mark	Structure	Vocabulary	Fluency and Development
9 - 10	The candidate demonstrates ability to use a variety of structures accurately and consistently. The candidate is confidently in control of the structures used.	The candidate shows (enough) command of vocabulary to convey and respond to information and ideas with precision. Shades of meaning are achieved and some sophisticated ideas are communicated.	The candidate shows sustained ability to maintain a conversation and to contribute at (some) length. The candidate can initiate and respond to change in direction of the conversation. Pronunciation and intonation are clear. Candidates is sometimes eloquent .
7 - 8	Structures will be generally sound, but will not be used entirely accurately or with consistent confidence. There will be some errors in attempting to use more complex sentences.	The candidate has a sufficient range of vocabulary to (respond and convey) convey information and ideas with competence. Errors are noticeable, however, when attempting to use more complex and precise vocabulary.	The candidate responds relevantly and at some length which makes frequent prompting unnecessary, resulting in a competent conversation. Pronunciation and intonation are generally clear.
5 - 6	The candidate can use simple structures securely but has difficulty venturing beyond them.	Vocabulary conveys simple ideas and information clearly, though it is not wide or varied. There may be hesitation, repetition and searching for words.	The candidate makes an attempt to respond to questions and prompts. Effort will need to be made to develop the conversation; only partial success will be achieved. There is some lack of clarity of pronunciation and intonation, but it is unlikely to impede communication.
3 - 4	Structures will generally be very simple, limited and with errors, which will restrict communication.	Vocabulary will generally be inadequate to convey simple ideas.	Responses tend to be brief and widely spaced. The candidate has to be encouraged to go beyond short responses and struggles to develop a conversation. Pronunciation and intonation cause some communication difficulty.
1 - 2	Attempts at structured sentences will rarely achieve communication. However, some attempt at a response will be made during the discussion.	Use of single words is the norm and there will be long gaps.	Responses are so brief that little is communicated. The candidate hardly engages in a conversation. Pronunciation and intonation patterns cause difficulty for even the most sympathetic listener.
0	Completely limited/no attempt at a response.	Completely limited/no attempt at a response.	Completely limited/no attempt at a response.

SAMPLE ORAL EXAMINATION SUMMARY FORM

After the oral assessment has been undertaken an Oral Examination Summary Form must be completed. A sample of this form is provided on page 19 for information. Copies of the form to be used for the examination will be provided by ECESWA at the appropriate time and will contain instructions on the reverse. The form should be used in conjunction with the Teacher's Notes and Mark Scheme which will be provided for the examination session.

Does not quite fulfil the task, although there are some positive qualities. Inappropriate register, showing insufficient awareness of purpose and/or audience. * Development of ideas: Supplies some detail and explanation, but the effect is incomplete. Some repetition. Award 1 mark. * Limited engagement with task, but this is mostly hidden by density of error. Award 1 mark. 	1 - 2	Errors intrude: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> * Style: Simple structures and vocabulary. * Accuracy: Meaning is sometimes in doubt. Occasionally, sense can be deciphered. Paragraphs absent or haphazard. Award 1 mark.
0	Little relevance: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • No engagement with the task or any engagement with task is completely hidden by density of error. Award 0 marks. If essay is completely irrelevant, no mark can be given for language. 	0	Hard to understand: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Density of error completely obscures meaning. Whole sections impossible to recognize as pieces of English writing. Paragraphs absent or inconsistent.
